ALIS will serve as the management "backbone" for a global fleet of over 3,000 F-35s to be operated by three U.S. military services and other countries. The Pentagon expects to pay $391 billion to develop the jets and buy 2,457 jets in coming decades. ALIS is so big and costly it constitutes a major arms program on its own.

She has said she wants the emails released as soon as possible — but the State Department estimated it needed until January 2016, Politico said — meaning the emails would come out just before the primary season.

The study involved 64 mothers who had suffered with postnatal depression for up to two years after having their babies. They received an average of nine support calls from peer volunteers - women who had recovered from postnatal depression themselves and who were then trained in peer support.

"To never be able to speak another word or see the world with a coherent gaze. To lose in one decisive moment, a lifetime of productive work, companionship, just the ordinariness of being married and raising children, brewing a cup of tea after a bath, feeling safe in the world," it says.

The Nets, who finished 38-44 season and lost in the first round to the Hawks, are entering another offseason with important decisions about the future. Brook Lopez and Thaddeus Young have options to become free agents, and the Nets have to decide how much they’re willing to spend with an eye towards rebuilding and the prospect of copious cap space opening up in 2016.

“It’s embarrassing,” captain Ryan McDonagh said of the loss, which ended the Rangers’ run of 15 straight playoff games decided by one goal. “There are a lot of things you want to say right now but talking doesn’t do much. Our guys better figure it out quickly here and realize that stupid, selfish penalties are going to cost us against this team. They (Tampa Bay) have too much skill. Shooting ourselves in the foot from the very first few minutes there is not going to give us a chance to win.”

May 18 (Reuters) - Urban Outfitters Inc's quarterly sales fell short of market estimates as sales under theAnthropologie brand rose at the slowest pace in 11 quarters, sending the company's shares down 17 percent in extended trading.

The researchers noted that a lot of research in this area has tended to focus on men and people with a history of heart attacks. They said it was important to look at middle-aged and older women ‘as this age group is more susceptible to heart disease as they age and are likely to live longer with disability’.

Moreover, argues Paula Donovan, co-director of AIDS-Free World, the organization that made public in March the highly critical U.N. experts report on sexual abuse, one of the many loopholes in the U.N.‘s statistical catalogue is that one allegation does not always mean one person committing one offense.

Chief Executive Tommy Breen said he expected a significant impact from the acquisition in early December and saw further opportunities in the energy market -- DCC’s biggest profit generator -- as oil firms dispose of downstream businesses.

Keston Jones, 30, and Ruben Santiago, 25, are accused of using two women to lure Reichl to the roof of a Sunset Park building in July 2013 where they maced his eyes before robbing him of $2,000 cash and an iPhone.
