Expectations of more easing from the Bank of Japan kept the Japanese currency in check. The BOJ meets on Friday and is seen expanding its massive stimulus programme in October, according to most economists polled by Reuters.

The Russian-native mother has long defended her son's innocence, even after he admitted to the attack that killed three people and injured 260 more. He also admitted to the murder of an MIT security guard, which happened days after the marathon.

Coco stunned as she arrived at the American Ballet Theatre - the perfect opportunity for the model to step away from mummy duty for just a few hours and dress to impress. And dress to impress she certainly did in that purple number.

The comments from Benoit Coeure, initially made in private on Monday at a conference attended by one of Britain's richest hedge fund managers Alan Howard, some of his peers and academics, sent markets into a flurry when they were published on Tuesday.

Kadyrov has enjoyed an exclusive relationship with Putin, who saw him as the linchpin for peace in Chechnya after two devastating separatist wars that killed tens of thousands. In exchange for restoring stability, Putin gave Kadyrov, a former rebel, carte blanche to run the region in the North Caucasus as his personal fiefdom and funded a costly reconstruction.

At the same time, the growth in pay TV subscriptions - once tied to a robust housing market - is at a near standstill. MoffettNathanson Research estimates quarterly subscriber losses of about 0.1 percent over the past two years.

The European Union on Monday approved using military force against migrant smugglers in the Mediterranean. European leaders have been under increasing pressure to take decisive action to crack down on smugglers ferrying immigrants from North Africa to Europe, often in unsafe, overcrowded boats. At least 1,800 migrants have died trying to make the crossing this year. The EU hopes to destroy the smugglers' boats before the migrants board.

The trial was broadcast live on national TV, reflecting wide public interest. But the speed with which the first sentences were announced — after just two full days of court hearings — angered many, including Farkhunda’s family.

Penalties were only part of it. The Rangers had no control of Game 2 after setting the tempo in Game 1, but they still only trailed, 3-2, entering the third period of Monday night’s sloppy effort.

"Whether it is because of conflict or natural disaster, our heritage is such a delicate and valuable resource, the only way that we can really preserve it is to take the steps to make those digital surrogates, so that we can protect the physical reality of that heritage as well."

And Onassis’ influence continues to this day. Scarves knotted under chins, striped French sailor jersey and jodhpurs have filled fashion pages in recent seasons, and Lamy, the French eyeglass company responsible for her famous shades, recently reintroduced the original “Jackie” design.
