LONDON, May 19 (Reuters) - The euro tumbled on Tuesday and the region's stocks and bonds jumped after the European Central Bank signalled it would speed up its 1 trillion euro bond-buying programme for the next two months ahead of an expected summer lull.

Society needs to "think this through now before it becomes a reality," said bioengineer John Dueber of the University of California, Berkeley, who led a team that discovered the final missing link of the process.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The federal government hopes to reverse America's declining honeybee and monarch butterfly populations by making more federal land bee-friendly, spending more money on research and considering the use of less pesticides.

Tannehill has started in all 48 games for the Dolphins since he was drafted eighth overall in the 2012 draft. In 2014, he set career highs in virtually every single offensive category including completions, attempts, completion percentage, passing yards, passing touchdowns and passer rating.

The Government has reached agreement with the doctors' union, the IMO, which will allow for the introduction shortly of free GP care for all under sixes in the population. GPs will receive a basic fee of €125 per annum for treating patients under the age of six.

The 23-year-old was arguing with her husband, 24-year-old Pete Gonzales, after visiting her mother's home. Pete Gonzales decided to walk away from the argument — and Whitney Gonzales jumped in her car to look for him.

"Our results suggest that doctors, public health scientists and policy makers need to rethink how to best identify who is at high risk of dementia. We also need to pay attention to the causes and public health consequences of the link between underweight and increased dementia risk, which our research has established," commented the study's author, Prof Stuart Pocock, of the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine.

A Twitter spokesman could not immediately confirm whether Obama had set a record. According to Guinness World Records, the fastest pace to a million followers was set by actor Robert Downey Jr. in 23 hours and 22 minutes in April 2014.

The Sports Arena, which opened in 1959, was the home venue for the Los Angeles Lakers (1960-1967) and the Clippers (1984-1999) of the NBA, and also the NHL's Los Angeles Kings during their inaugural 1967-68 season.