Caesars in October granted certain stakeholders a lien on as much as $468 million in cash to earn their support for its proposed restructuring. It waited until Jan. 15 to file for bankruptcy so the lien would be outside a statutory 90-day window to challenge certain pre-bankruptcy payments, the unsecured creditors argue.

"The efforts by defense counsel will have the necessary effect of undermining both the state’s right to present the investigation to a fair and impartial grand jury in this matter and tainting the pool of potential jurors who may ultimately decide this case in a court of law," wrote Antonio Gioia, a deputy state’s attorney, in the motion filed last week.

Nevertheless, the green lobby is hoping that Merkel will push for a pledge to phase out fossil fuels by the middle of this century ahead of the Paris meeting, which aims to agree on a successor to the Kyoto Protocol.

Bonds account for nearly a third of the $33 trillion of assets owned in the world’s major pension markets, according to a recent study by consultancy Towers Watson. Government debt made up more than a quarter of UK pension fund assets in 2014.

WASHINGTON, May 19 (Reuters) - U.S. housing starts jumped to their highest level in nearly 7-1/2 years in April and permits soared, hopeful signs for an economy that is struggling to regain strong momentum after a dismal first quarter.

Founded a year ago, FBN plans to help farmers make better decisions about crops by analyzing weather and soil information, as well as other data gathered by sensor-laden farm equipment. It can then offer recommendations on inputs such as seed, fertilizer and chemicals.

PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — A South African judge on Tuesday extended the bail of retired doubles tennis champion Bob Hewitt, who intends to appeal his conviction for raping and sexually assaulting minors in the 1980s and 1990s.

“He surrounds himself with good people like he did here,” Hall said about McLellan. “Everyone was great. The whole staff here (Peter DeBoer, who is in the running for McLellan’s old San Jose job, Carolina Hurricanes head coach Bill Peters and Woodcroft) was great at preparing us for playing on the big ice and how to play against the European teams who play a lot different than what we see back home.

“When Edward Snowden revealed our intelligence secrets to the world in 2013, civil liberties extremists seized that moment to advance their very own narrow agenda,” he said. “They want you to think that there’s a government agent listening in every time you pick up the phone or Skype with your grandkids. They want you to think our intelligence community are the bad guys -- straight out of the Bourne Identity or some other Hollywood thriller. They want you to think that if we weakened our capabilities, the rest of the world would somehow love us more.”
